14th St., one door from Pa. Ave.

AN event that will be written large in world history will take place this afternoon at the White House when the President of the United States will present to Mme. Curie the gram of radium, which is the gift of American women to the greatest of woman scientists.

The ceremony has been set for 4:30, when 500 invited guests will assemble in the east room to pay tribute to Mme. Curie and to witness the bestowal of the gift, which is to enable the recipient to carry on experiments for the healing of all nations of dreaded disease. The guests will include diplomats, Government officials, scientists, educators and heads of women's organizations.

Mrs. Harding, who is honorary hostess during Mme. Curie's visit, will receive the guests. Mme. Curie will be accompanied by her two daughters, Mlle. Irene Curie and Mlle. Eve Curie, and by Mrs. William Brown Meloney, to whom is due the honor of originating the great project of thus honoring the co-discoverer of radium.

In the great room, which has been the scene of many memorable receptions, there will be a beautiful arrangement of flowers. The perfect May day will give opportunity of glimpses through many open windows of the gardens all in blossom. No more perfect setting could be devised than that prepared for this most unique of all historic ceremonies.

Mrs. Robert Woods Bliss, who is head of the active local committee, has sailed for Europe, but during their visit in Washington Mme. Curie and her party will be entertained at the Bliss home, 1785 Massachusetts avenue. Mme. Curie arrived shortly after noon, and was received by members of Mrs. Bliss' committee, which includes Mrs. Mahlon Pitney, Mrs. Marshall Field, Mrs. Mabel Boardman, Miss Julia Lathrop, Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Mrs. Charles D. Walcott and Mrs. Vernon Kellogg.

DINNER IN NEW YORK.

Mme. Curie was the guest of honor last evening in New York at the annual dinner of the National Institute of Social Science at the Waldorf, when she received a gold medal and was acclaimed as the "high priestess of science." Vice President Coolidge was to have made the presentation of the medals, but owing to a slight illness, was prevented from going to New York. Henry Fairfield Osborn, field director, presided. All the rooms were decorated with flowers, bright red peonies being used effectively.

Mrs. Harding lingered for a time among the guests who gave her enthusiastic greeting, and then called on one of the wounded soldiers who was unable to go to the Convalescent Home from his hospital room.

Among the guests were Mrs. Henry Rea, former field director of Walter Reed; Mrs. E. B. McLean, Mrs. Erwin Laughlin, Mrs. C. C. Calhoun, Surgeon General and Mrs. Ireland, Colonel and Mrs. Henry Fisher, and Colonel Glennon, commander of the post.

The committee of the Ladies in Gray included Mrs. A. Garrison McIntock, Miss Marjorie Lowmister, assistant R. C. F. D.; Mrs. Montgomery Blair, Mrs. Harriet Beale, Mrs. John Jacob Rogers, Mrs. Charles Warren, Mrs. William E. Lewis, Mrs. Richard Fouchy, Mrs. E. O. Fox, Mrs. Anne Brandon, Mrs. Mary S. Quintard, Mrs. Meriam Hillton, Mrs. McRoberts, Miss Barbara

Singleton, Miss Evelyn Kirk, Miss Helene Oyster, Miss Edith M. Osburn, Miss Anne Randolph, Miss Grace O'Connell, and the Misses Dennis.

Mrs. Calvin Coolidge returned to town this morning after spending some time at her home in Northampton, Mass., and stopping in New York to attend the dinner of Mme. Curie. Vice President Coolidge is recovering from the slight indisposition which prevented his attending the dinner last night.

PREPARE ENTERTAIN FOR HUGHES. The Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes were honor guests last evening of the Ambassador of Peru and Mme. Peset, who gave a dinner and reception at the Pan-American Union in celebration of the unveiling of a portrait bust of the Peruvian patriot, Dr. Hipolito Unzué. This bust is the fifteenth to be presented to the Pan-American Union for its collection of national heroes which is eventually to include representatives of all the republics of America.

This was one of the most picturesque and altogether delightful festivities given in Washington in a crowded season. The dinner, for which fifty-two guests were assembled, was served in the patio. The table, decked with pink roses, sweet peas and other spring blossoms, was circular in form and surrounded Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney's beautiful Aztec fountain.

The guests invited to meet Secretary and Mrs. Hughes included the French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand, the ambassador of Russia, Mr. Bakmeteff, the Secretary of War and Mrs. Weeks, the minister of Portugal, Viscount d'Almeida, the Serbian Minister and Mme. Grouitch, the Minister of Switzerland and Mme. Peter, and Mrs. Sallie James Farnham, the sculptress who made the bust of Unzué. The others in the distinguished company were Senator and Mrs. Atlee Pomerene, Senator Walter Edge and Mrs. Sarah Lee Phillips, Congressman and Mrs. Frederick C. Hicks, Congressman Stephen G. Porter, Rear Admiral and Mrs. William W. Kimball, Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Howry, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Hitt, Mr. and Mrs. Gist Blair, Capt. and Mrs. C. C. Calhoun, Mr. and Mrs. William Littauer, Mrs. Thomas F. Bayard, Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, Mrs. Julian James, Mrs. John B. Henderson, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, Mrs. James B. Haggin, of New York; Mrs. George B. Hope, Mrs. Dorothy Williams McCombs and her fiancé, Frederick A. Sterling, who has been detailed to duty at the American embassy in Peru; Mrs. John Ballantine Pitney, of Morristown, N. J., sister of Mrs. McCombs; Leland Harrison, who will be best man for Mr. Sterling at his marriage tomorrow; Leo S. Rowe, director general of the Pan-American Union; Dr. Charles Noble Gregory and
